Mountain Grizzly in Alaska

This hunt takes place in the game rich country near Denali National Park. Taking place at the bottom edge of sheep country in upper open drainages above tree line where bears can be seen for miles; our outfitter has more than 20 years of outfitting and guiding experience in this area. Over the past three years, hunters have seen between 6 – 8 bears during their hunt and success has been 100% on bears in the 7 ½ - 8 ½ foot class. The average hunt has been 5 days. Black bear can be taken for an additional $2000 and there is no charge on wolves. If you want a true mountain grizzly with high success, this is your hunt. Openings are limited for 2010 and 2011.
